ALABAMA CHESS ANTICS is the official publication of the Alabama Chess Federation and is published quarterly from Jeff Lake editor. Annual memberships for adults is $10.00, junior membership is $5.00, and Scholastic is $4.00, payable to A.C.F. Treasurer Dick Rhea, All memberships expire one year from the date that you become a member. The Alabama Chess Federation appreciates your financial support.

The upcoming semi-annual business meeting, to be held at the Queen of Hearts on the weekend of February 8th and 9th, stands out as a most important meeting for the ACF. We will vote for the second time to make official a Scholastic membership category to be recognized by amendment to the ACF constitution and by-laws. If it passes, and I see no reason that it should not, the Executive Board will meet soon thereafter to define the limits and responsibilities of that membership class. Currently, the only definitive aspects of Scholastic memberships are the amount of dues and entitlement to a subscription to the Antics. Also, the possibility of Associate Affiliate memberships will probably be discussed.

The matter of electing voting members and delegates to the annual U.S.C.F. business meeting must be addressed at the meeting. This is customarily done in September at the annual ACF meeting. It was not handled last September due to the length of time required for election of ACF officers. The U.S.C.F. business meeting in California last year resulted in strict requirements which must be met by state affiliates in order to receive affiliate support funds in upcoming years. At the ACF meeting, those requirements will be brought up for discussion. However, the ACF can be proud that it already meets most of the requirements.

Congratulations are certainly in order for the Huntsville Chess Club -- for the enthusiasm and interest shown by the Club in the development of chess in Huntsville. It will surely benefit chess in general in the state! I am also proud to report that spheres of influence are developing on the scholastic scene in Jefferson County, which may lead to the beginning of a strong scholastic base in the County.

The Chess Foundation continues to meet deadlines and approvals within the State of Alabama, and we are now pulling together the filing requirements for tax-free status on the federal level. A bank account has been opened, and we are ready to move as soon as all tax approvals have been received.

Hope to see each of you in Montgomery -- not only to play chess but at this important meeting as well.

Chessfully yours,

Richard W. Ellis

PROSPECTUS 91-92

We have ended our fiscal year in excellant financial condition. Our present balance is $1234 and change.

However our current paid up memberships are only 135 who are current. There are 30 Scholastics who expire in December 91, that would make 105 current in total. Hopefully, most of these will renew as they are part of Bud Martins group. Bud has done a great job in Huntsville, he deserves a lot of admiration and credit for his accomplishments.

It has never been easy to promote growth in membership, but is now crucial we do so. Talk with your local club members and encourage bringing at least one person to your meetings. Remember, a chain is only as good as its weakest link.

In order use to our bulk rate mailing, we must present at least 200 copies to the post office.

Richard Ellis will tell you that "I am an eternal pessimist" and to a point, I agree. It is my feeling that it is better to prepare for the worst, and always hope for the best.

Based on last years expenditures for Antics, and this years starting balance, I feel we can handle this year with ease. However, if we do not reach last years paid memberships , (over 300), we could suffer a sharp drop in the 92-93 starting balance.

There are many good minds in our group, and now is the time to make use of this talented pool. Any ideas from anyone to improve our fiscal posture will be greatly appreciated. Meanwhile, lets recruit, recruit, recruit.

LETS GET WITH IT !!!!
Dick Rhea, Tres.

Schools that have Scholastic programs should send news to the ANTICS. There is plenty of room for your news.

You will see some duplication of tournament results in the ANTICS. The reason for this is because sometimes I have the wall charts available at publishing time but do not have the crosstables. When and if I ge the crosstables I will put them in the next issue.

CHESS TAUGHT FOR TEACHER CERTIFICATION

Starting on December 10, 1991, a Continuing Education Unit (CEU) entitled "Introduction to Chess Instruction" will be offered at Sacred Heart University in Stamford, Connecticut to certified teachers for teaching accreditation credit. This is the first time in the United States that a CEU for chess instruction has been offered by a major university to certified teachers.

The course, sponsored and financed by the Stamford Board of Education, is a cooperative venture between the Westchester Chess Foundation of New York and the Fairfield County Chess Foundation.

The course instructs regular staff teachers how to teach chess in the schools. Furthermore, it shows how complex and high-level analytical thinking skills are developed in children through the use of chess in the classrooms and school clubs. Seventeen teachers from six elementary schools, three middle schools, and one high school, all in Stamford, are enrolled in the course.

The instructor for the twelve-hour, six-week course is Sunil Weeramantry, Chairman of the National Committee for Chess in Education for the U.S. Chess Federation. Mr. Weeramantry is renowned as a teacher, coach, and organizer. His successful curricular and after-school chess classes for children have reached dozens of schools in New York and Connecticut. His students have won scores of National Scholastic titles. In May, 1991, Weeramantry organized the National Elementary School Championship in Rye, New York, which drew a record 1,113 children from 34 states.

Stamford, Connecticut has had an active chess program in the elementary and middle schools for the last four years. With the training of teachers from the Stamford school system, it is anticipated that Connecticut will develop a much larger program in the near future.

New USCF Rating Software Implemented!

USCF has rewritten its unique software to process rating reports more quickly and accurately. After careful analysis and other work, beginning with directions from USCF's Rating Committee and Policy Board, and carried through by its professional staff (notably Programmer George Wang), USCF has implemented this new software.

Our software is an important new resource. Although the basic rating formula is unchanged, the program makes it possible for USCF to deliver key new services.

A separate system for faster chess!

Players can now play an entire tournament in a few hours, have the results rated, and need not be concerned that their regular ratings will be affected!

USCF now offers a separate rating system for time controls between Game/10 and Game/15. Try organizing and promoting these faster tournaments! Of course, your announcements must identify the tournament as a G/10-G/15 tournament, and so must your rating reports!

Lifetime titles!

Now, in addition to the traditional rating service, USCF offers a system of lifetime titles to all players! This service is automatic and requires no additional fee.

Lifetime titles have many advantages: No matter what fluctuations a player's rating suffers, his or her lifetime title remains in effect. Besides this long-needed recognition of lifetime performance, the system will aid in preventing a few "sandbaggers" from manipulating their ratings to qualify for lower-than-appropriate class prizes. In turn, this will encourage legitimate contenders for these class prizes; the effect will be to boost to your overall tournament attendance!

U.S. CHESS FEDERATION
186 ROUTE 9W • NEW WINDSOR, NEW YORK 12553 • (914) 562-8350

NEWS RELEASE

The system of lifetime titles is based on performance norms. There is a title for each 100 rating points. Titles based on norms are available for both regular and faster rating systems, and up-to-date norm information appears on USCF crosstables. Technical information about norms is available on request from USCF.

Service improved to provide "historical" tournament crosstables

Previously, requests for already rated events were fulfilled by hand-retrieval and photocopying. Our new system allows us to key in the tournament ID number to automatically print such cross-tables--as long as they were initially entered after November 13, 1991. Similarly, we can now quickly print out a player's last five tournament crosstables. These services will be available for both the faster and regular rating systems.

Tournament re-entries and cross-round pairings

Many organizers accommodate players with "cross round pairings." A number of organizers allow "re-entries" after one or two rounds by providing alternate first-half schedules. These are examples of developments in tournament structure that USCF's old software couldn't handle. The new software can, making our operation and the resulting service more responsive.

USCF is delighted to announce this new software and looks forward to our improved response to tournament organizers and players! USCF is continuing its rewriting of our software programs to improve other key areas of service.

Next World Chess Championship in Los Angeles?

An American city is among two finalists to host the World Chess Championship. The World Chess Federation (FIDE) announced in October that Los Angeles and Rabat, Morocco, were the final two contenders.

The American bid was presented by the Intermark Group, a Los Angeles-based marketing, sales, and promotion company. Intermark Group President and former deputy White House press secretary John G. Carlson said, "We are delighted to be one of the two finalists to administer and host the 1993 World Chess Championship Match, and believe we have an excellent chance to bring these Championships to Los Angeles."

Governor Pete Wilson, Mayor Tom Bradley, Board of Supervisors Chairman Mike Antonovich, L.A. Sports Council President David Simon, and Convention and Visitors Bureau Chairman Shell Ausman sent letters of support for the Intermark Group and Los Angeles.

In accordance with FIDE regulations, World Champion Garry Kasparov (a strong supporter of the Los Angeles bid) and the four remaining challengers will now be polled as to their preferences. The decision will be announced at the FIDE General Assembly meeting in Berlin, December 3-5.

The not-for-profit U.S. Chess Federation, the official governing body for chess in the United States, strongly endorses Intermark Group's effort to host such a prestigious event on American soil. The USCF plans to offer the fullest possible support to Intermark.

Al Lawrence, Executive Director of the USCF, said, "Many U.S. cities would like to host the 1993 World Chess Championship. Chess is now capturing more of the American spotlight than at any other time since Bobby Fischer's winning the World Title in 1972. The Intermark Group's proposal, including its plans for pre- and post-event activities, along with its unique qualifications to execute its proposal, made Los Angeles a clear winner among U.S. cities."

The 1990 World Championship match between Garry Kasparov and former champion Anatoly Karpov was played in New York City and Lyons, France. This was the first time a championship match had been held in the U.S. since 1905. The cycle to choose a new challenger has since reduced the field to four: Karpov, Nigel Short of England, Jan Timman of Holland, and Artur Yusupov of the USSR. Semi-final matches will take place in April of 1992, and the Final in January of 1993, both in Linares, Spain. The World Championship is scheduled for October of 1993.

The Club currently meets 06:00 - 10:00 PM at the Westside Neighborhood Center, 125 Earl St., Huntsville. We are actively seeking a new location that would allow a scholastic section, with a better noise isolation for tournaments. Call Alan Parker if you have any ideas on this.

Monday tournaments usually start at 07:00 PM. Occasional instructional classes begin at 06:15 PM and generally last one half hour. Chess Puzzles are shown before 6:30 PM with entries accepted until 9:00 PM. Several times a year people with the highest accumulated puzzle scores are awarded prizes.

Normal Dues for the Huntsville Chess Club are $12 per year. Coupons can be earned, by helping with tournaments, which will lower the cost of entering tournaments, or paying club dues. Scholastic and Senior Citizen dues are $4 per year. Come on in, any non-holiday monday, for some friendly skittles if you just want to relax some. Not everyone here is serious! WR Savoie

STATE OPEN

The 1991 Alabama State Chess Championship was held over Labor Day weekend at the Auburn University at Montgomery, with the Montgomery Chess Club serving as host and Rich Bellezza directing. A total of 66 entries in two sections helped make this six-round event highly successful and enjoyable. While the State Championship was in progress, 15 youngsters competed next door in the Montgomery Scholastic tournament.

In the Open Section, Richard Benjamin of Atlanta scored 5 1/2 points to clinch first prize of $250.00. Tied for second were Hisham Sunna and Charles Meidinger, both with 4 1/2 points. While they each took $125.00 in prize money, Hisham Sunna walked away with the trophy on tiebreak, thereby becoming the new Alabama State Champion. Mark Liatti and Gerald Squires rounded out the Open section winners, tying for Top Class A/Under, taking $75.00 each. Congratulations to our new champ and the other top scorers too!

Montgomery's Andrew Whatley and unrated Sanford Leathers of Milton, Florida each scored 5 points in the Reserve Section, dividing First and Second Prizes of $400.00. Ten-year-old Andrew carried off the section's trophy--watch out for this young man in 1992! Tied for Third Place were Phillip Taylor and Chris Boesch with 4 1/2 points each and $25.00. Top Class C went to Steve Nolan along with $100.00. Last but not least, Danny McDougal toted away $100.00 for the Class D/E/Unrated prize.

Although small, the Scholastic Tournament offered players from primary through high school the chance to demonstrate their skill and compete for trophies. Tournament Director Jack Mallory of Mobile organized the four-round event that started and finished on Saturday, August 31st. First and Second Places in the high school group were Scott Helton of Albertville and Jason Selvage of Grant, respectively. For the intermediate level, Louis Atchison of Daphne and Charles Gambrell from Tuscaloosa secured first and second prizes. The elementary winners were Jason Graham of Northport, William Chen of Redstone Arsenal, and Jeremy Farris of Montgomery, taking first, second, and third prizes respectively. Finally, primary level winners were David Sloan or Mountain Brook taking First Place and Kate Graham of Northport taking Second. Each of these young people took away trophies for their fine achievements.

A great tournament--thanks to everyone for playing and special appreciation to the directors and organizers who made these events possible!

SHCOLASTIC TOURNAMENT HELD DURING 1991 STATE OPEN

1991 Montgomery Scholastic

A small scholastic one day tournament was held Saturday, 31 August in conjunction with the State Championship. Fifteen players from seven cities played in the four round, G/90, open event with nine trophies at stake. Scott Helton of Huntsville won overall and took first high school trophy with a 4-0 score. Jason Selvage of Huntsville won the 2nd high school trophy. Lewis Atchison of Daphne won 1st middle school and Charles Gambrell of Tuscaloosa took second. Jason Graham of Northport was top elementary, William Chen of Redstone Arsenal was second, and Jeremy Farris was third. David Sloan of Mountain Brook was first primary and Kate Graham of Northport was 2nd. Six of the fifteen players were primaries, which made for some tough Swiss pairings, but the primaries took three points out of the hides of their elders. You older players take warning!!!

AMERICA'S 1991-92 SCHOLASTIC CHESS ALL-STARS

Scholastic chess is booming in the United States--not only are more youngsters playing the Royal Game, but they are getting good, too.

Thirty-three whiz kids have been selected as 1991-92 All-America Chess Team members. The U.S. Chess Federation created the Team six years ago to honor and reward America's finest young competitors. These 1991-92 superstars, ranging in age from eight to sixteen, are at the top of the rating scale for each of their age levels, and have been selected from a total USCF youth membership of 12,000.

Team members were chosen based on a combination of age (as of September 1, 1991) and USCF rating (as listed in the August 1991 Rating Supplement). All candidates must have played in and completed at least three USCF-approved events in 1991, and at least two of these must have been open, non-scholastic tourneys.

Each member will receive a certificate, a congratulatory letter, and a jacket with the All-America Chess Team insignia. The winners have shown outstanding achievement and are considered the most likely to distinguish themselves in the future. In fact, one could say that the 33 Team members show world-class potential.

Although they demonstrate great chess prowess and excel in academics (many have perfect grade-point averages), the 1991-92 All-America Team members are well-rounded youngsters. Many are interested in sports, such as basketball, table tennis, football, and baseball. Their non-chess hobbies range from coin collecting to jazz dancing. In school, the overwhelming majority prefer mathematics--though history, science, and literature are favorites as well.

Listed below are the Team members' names, ages, minimum qualifying ratings, hometowns, and actual ratings attained. USCF recognizes anyone rated over 2200 as a Master, over 2000 as Expert, over 1800 as Class A, over 1600 as Class B, and over 1400 as Class C.

For more information on this and other chess-related events, please contact the United States Chess Federation, 186 Rte. 9W, New Windsor, NY 12553; telephone (914) 562-8350; FAX (914) 561-2437.

COMMENTS FROM THE EDITOR

What do you think?

In order for tournament results to get into the ANTICS, it might be a good idea for the cross tables to be sent directly to the Editor from the USCF. I will copy the Cross table and send the original back to the Club that held the Tournament.

Written news from all Clubs would be a big plus to the ANTICS. Results from Club tournaments are also welcome.

There are 400 plus USCF members in the state of Alabama. There are now approximately 135 ACF members. Do your organization a favor and encourage everyone to join the ACF. They may ask why. Tell them that their membership will make the ACF and Alabama Chess stronger.

Should ACF membership be required at all tournaments in the State? I have been struggling with this question personally for a long while. Do you have an opinion on this? If you do, get it to the ANTICS.

Future ANTICS will be mailed in the months of November, February, May, and August. Dedline for material to be in these ANTICS will be Oct. 15, Jan. 15, April 15, and July 15. You should recieve your ANTICS by the 15th of the month that it is mailed.

COMMENTS FROM THE EDITOR

What do you think?

I would again encourage all tournament organizers to add $1 to the entry fees of major tournaments and .50¢ to Scholastis tournaments. This money should be sent to the Treasurer and marked specifically for Scholastic support. This is a painless way to raise funds for worthwhile Scholastic projects like sending a State representative to a National event. Or, for example, helping someone like Andrew Whatley, who went to Poland.

New Meeting Room for Mobile Chess Club

During August the Mobile Chess Club moved into new quarters several doors down from the former meeting room in the Festival Shopping Center. The new meeting room (Room 199) is located next door to the Welcome Shopping Center. This new meeting room is larger (almost 3000 square feet available) and has better lighting than the room previously used (room 203). The club pays $2 per hour to rent this community room ($10 for each Friday night).
